Mario in Cloud Cuckoo Kingdom: The Director’s Edition (DVD Release)

This is the long awaited version with the deleted scenes.

Also there a few DVD changes and even more deleted scenes.

Chapter 1: Help Mario, there is a rat in my kitchen

After the Mario Golf Tournament, Mario, Luigi and Peach decide to run straight to Peach's castle for a chocolate cake. Toad was outside the castle saying to our guests, "Do not go in if I was you, there is something lurking about." Typical of our heroes, they ignored Toad and unlocked the front door. Inside the castle walls, Mario asked, "Peach, can you make a chocolate cake-a for me, please and some banana chocolate drink?" The Princess replied, "Sure Mario, anything for you." Mario quickly took a nap on the couch. As Peach opened the kitchen, she saw a dark beast which smelled like cottage cheese and she shouted, "Help Mario, there is a rat in my kitchen." Mario and Luigi heard Peach, Mario took his dusty mallet last used in Donkey Kong and Luigi took his flashlight. As Mario was just about to lift his hammer, Luigi shined his bright torch towards the black shadow.

Chapter 2: She is not a rat, but a human girl

The black shadow became clear. The hair was too straight for anyone in the Mushroom World, the black uniform of Wortley High was strange to our heroes, as all came from Nintendo and finally it was a female. Mario was shocked, Peach collapsed and Luigi nervously said, "WWW...What i...ss your...name?" The creature heard Luigi and replied, "My name is Rhiannon." Mario continued, "So your name is Rhiannon the rat is it?" She shouted, "Mario, I am not a rat, but a school girl who used to go to this room (don't know why) and a girl called Nicola came here too." Mario went crazy, pretended to be Donkey Kong, ate 10 bananas and screamed, "Maaammmmaaaa mmmiiiaaa."

Chapter 3: A Link between Wortley and Peach's Castle

After Mario went mad, Toad answered, "Mario, the barrier between the Mushroom Kingdom and Earth must have gone again." Mario replied, "What do mean Toad?" Toad explained, "Mario, at the wall next to the gates the barrier is there to stop people from normal to Nintendo has stopped working. I predicted before the trip to ASDA (it is a supermarket) Rhiannon and Madame Gabalot as broken the portal that will now cause mayhem to our world. Remove the pests before Bowser destroys everything." Bowser heard Toad talking about him so he used the star stick to cause a massive mushroom quake and a dangerous disease called Koopa SARS (as you remember Peach got it and Dr. Mario had to cure her from Coin Heaven) came, everyone laid down and died. The 'roomquake blast fixed the portal.

Chapter 4: Mario, Luigi and Yoshi survive

Two days after

The Mushroom Kingdom is completely destroyed and millions of koopa corpses around the area. Every ememy died, Koopas, Goombas, Bowser (he was weak from the blast), the Wario bros, even the Boos but what is this? It seems Mario, Luigi and Yoshi got up and all bellowed, "It was all a dream, why are there corpses around us?" The three goodies rush to Mario's Pad and the telephone rang. The operator replied, “The evil Sony and Microsoft corporations deleted all Nintendo characters apart from you three. It looked like you lots are immortal (live forever) From Miyamoto-san." All the characters were relieved and Mario wanted everything to be back before these events happened but not. Mario talked to Luigi, "Why can't we go to earth and get the humans?" Luigi cried, "We tried this in 1981 but DK took Pauline and I had no job remember, but I suppose that could be done." Mario & Luigi rushed straight to the portal, forgetting Mr Miyamoto's misquote and landed them at Wortley High School.

Chapter 5: Help from pupils and DK

Mario & Luigi stared at the enormous school while looking for people to rebuild the Mushroom Kingdom from Bowser's blast. Luigi is spotting for a girl who is intelligent, Mario needed a good singer. Back in the Mushroom World, Bowser got up and called all Koopa Kids to rebuild his castle (which will take four hours). Luigi asked this girl, "What is your name and can you help us?" The girl who wore glasses and had straight hair replied, "My name is Aimeé Gill and sure Luigi, I can help you." Mario was getting hungry and saw a big bowl of Penne pasta; he munched the pasta until there was nothing left. After the meal, Mario found a singer called Kirsty Lucas who was a duet with a popular person who did some of this web site who was a friend of Dr. Wily the creator of this site. Kirsty agreed with Mario and Luigi got the rat and Madame Gabalot. Our heroes found a photo of Donkey Kong, they was thinking that Donkey Kong Island is somewhere at the west coast of Africa and all the people needed him and his crew to rebuild you know where.

Mario and Luigi phoned up the taxis to pick them up at the school. The taxis arrived 10 minutes late; the order was that Mario and Luigi get in one while the pupils get in the other. The driver somehow knew Mario and Luigi, perhaps from their games? On the way to the airport, Mario saw a golf course and asked Luigi, "Can we go to that golf course for a quick game?" Quickly Luigi replied, "Sorry Mario, but if we want to go far away to DK Isle we have to make there on time."

Chapter 6: The Flight to Donkey Kong Island

Mario arrived at LBA airport and he had 200 coins just enough for all the people to go to DK Isle. As you may not know Mario & Luigi got the flight for free because they are famous gaming characters. Luigi wanted a bowl of spaghetti so he quickly went the cafe to get it. The announcement on the speaker said, "The flight from British Airways BA12334 (1) to Donkey Kong Island, please board to gate number 9, Thank you." So the gang rushed to the plane while Luigi was scoffing his pasta with a plastic bowl. All the people sat down comfortly all were listening to music went the captain shouted, "Listen Mario and your crazy dudes, I am your captain Funky Kong and I will give you my surfing movie: Funky's Fishing Flights." "Funky Kong?" Luigi whispered, "Who is Funky Kong?" Mario waited two seconds and answered, "Funky Kong is Donkey Kong's friend who is cool and calm."

Four and a half hours later

Funky Kong was flying the plane when suddenly Funky bellowed, "We are out of gas man, bananas and people overboard." Luckily everyone had parachutes so they all could float nice and softly on the ground. In the Mushroom World, Bowser has rebuilt the Kingdom with help from the Koopa Kids, he saw Peach getting up and quickly kidnapped her.

Mario & the crew arrived at the island looking for the DK Crew, suddenly Luigi spotted two familiar sites: DK's tree house and Cranky's Cabin. So they went to the wise old Cranky Kong to find out where Donkey Kong is. Mario asked Cranky, "Where is your son, Donkey Kong?" Cranky rudely replied, "Not you again Jumpman, after 22 years of relaxing you came back to defeat me again. Well it will not work this time and I do not know where my good for nothing son is neither." All the girls laughed at Cranky, which made him furious and shouted, "You pathetic humans laughing at the great Cranky Kong, well you should say sorry to me otherwise you will get hurt and you all smell of bad odour (2), I use CK Classic (Cranky Kong Classic) odour-prevented." The pupils ignored Cranky's advice and ran away to the Kongo Jungle. Mario gave Cranky 10 bananas and 5 coins just to know where his son is. Meanwhile, the pupils got lost in the jungle and started to get scared. (What would you be like if you was in a jungle) They all heard a loud stamping of feet coming towards them. Luigi found DK and Diddy in his tree house sleeping and listening to the Rap and said to Donkey, "DK can you help us rebuild the Mushroom kingdom, I can do anything to let you do it." DK and Diddy just got up and whispered, "Yes, we can do it for free, Luigi." Luigi shouted to Mario to come to the tree house for the agreements of this silly quest.

Chapter 7: Donkey Kong, Humans & Fox McCloud

The girls of Wortley High heard the feet stamping getting louder and screamed when they saw one giant and a pilot of the Star Fox crew. "Who are you and what are you doing here?" The girls nervously talked. "My name is Janet Drury and this is the famous Fox McCloud, we was at holiday last year and the plane crashed here so we had to survive at the Kong village." The giant replied. Mario, Luigi, DK and Diddy climbed down from the tree house and got on Rambi. Back at the Mushroom Kingdom, Yoshi, Wario, Waluigi and Toad agreed that there should be a war to get Princess Peach back after the Mario Bros left. DK and the Marios arrived at DK Village, everyone who was there greeted Mario and Luigi with honour. The pupils and their friends also arrived at DK Village only to find that another girl was there called Alisha Manning who joins on this quest (How many girls are there now and where is Dr. Mario?) The girls just quickly made friends with Dixie Kong; in fact Madame Gabalot was exactly like her. So all the heroes went towards the direction of Angry Aztec.

Chapter 8. The burning hot desert (Deleted scene)
Mario, Luigi and Fox were in the central area of Angry Aztec when they saw this girl frying up like sausages on a George Forman grill. Mario said to Fox, “Can you rescue that poor girl Fox, it look like she should have some sun cream on.” Fox quickly replied, “Sure Mario, providing you give me my blaster back after Super Smash Bros.” Mario handed back Fox’s blaster and rescued a girl who loves this boy band: Blue. Luigi spotted that there is a time machine in the corner so Mario quickly went towards it and pushed a button by mistake. All of crew get transports through the space-time continuum.

Chapter 9. The You Arcade and Hang-on (Deleted scene)
Mario & Luigi had a look on their watches that said: 20th November 1985. “Mamma mia Luigi, 1985?” Mario told Luigi, “We just be saving Peach, by now.” Fox looked and saw Ryo from Shenmue playing on Space Harrier in this strange arcade and asked Mario, “Mario, can we play Hang-on?” Luigi discovered that to get back to 2003, you would have to play Hang-on to the end. Mario got on the motorbike, put 100 yen and pressed Start. The girls were cheering Mario, “Go Mario, we know you can do this.” Mario kept up to 220 km/h and this orange motorbike came up but quickly Mario overtaken him. There was only 10 seconds left on the timer, Mario needed to take the last turn and he just made it with only 1 second left. The time machine came back to 2003, but the machine went crazy and transported to 1998.

Chapter 10: Banjo Kazooie’s Revenge
Fox, the DK crew, the Marios and the humans arrived at this chilly place with only an igloo in sight. Only a broken sign with the words Freeezeey Peak knew where they were. Mario ran to the giant snowman but he tripped and started to slide down the hill. Everyone else followed him to the giant snowman and bumped into Banjo who was heading towards the starting line for the race to get the golden trophy. Kazooie who was behind Banjo said meanly, “You were bumping into us while we are trying to defeat Grunty, you all will pay for this.” Mario ran straight to the racing line and asked the two girls who were very jolly, “Janet and Victoria, would you compete with me-a to get the trophy?” They accepted Mario’s challenge and got on sledges. Before we even talk about this, Mario won the race. Luigi whispered to Mario, “I think we are in this Banjo Kazooie game, so lets go to Click Clock Wood before Banjo.” The entire crew rushed to Click Clock Wood and Kazooie was waiting impatiently and squawked, “Now you pesky humans will be turned into bumble bees, hello Mario, Luigi, DK and Fox.” Kazooie turn them to bumble bees and rushed to Grunty. DK knew that to turn them back to normal, they would have to see Mumbo Jumbo. So they all see Mumbo and gave him 50 tokens. Mumbo’s spell went wrong and turns them into washing machines, so he tried again. This time it works, and the time machine landed them in 1999 (One year later).

Chapter 11: The two clashes together like Sonic and tennis

Mario saw this silly hedgehog running about and answered to Mario, “Help, Zero is after me can any one save little old me?” So Aimeé ran towards the robot and gave it a few malfunctions. The pink hedgehog replied, “Thank you for saving me, what is your name?” Aimeé said back, “My name is Aimeé Gill, what is yours?” The pink one was shocked, “The famous Aimeé from Super Tennis, my name is Amy too.” The two now hate each other and said bad insults, so bad that Fox hummed the Thorntail Hollow music. Mario shouted, “Stop you two, I have a better idea, you two play Tennis to see if you are better or not.” So the smart cookie and an annoying pink hedgehog played tennis and because of this, Tim Henman won (I do not know why, I guess he took over the clever one.) At last, the time machine went back to 2003.

Chapter 12: The rare disease and the trip to Vine Valley

Everyone returned back to Angry Aztec but there was another problem. All the humans got Wilinium Koopus Kaptuii virus that the humans spoke Koopaish and turned into Koopas (Janet was turned into a resemblance of Baby Bowser). Dr. Mario (who was normal Mario in a doctor costume) had just cured them. The decision by Swanky Kong was that Mario, Fox and Luigi go from Manic Mincers to Tree top town and the humans go from Ropey Rampage to Vulture Culture to search for a portal leading to the Mushroom World. Eventually DK found the portal in between Forest Frenzy to Temple Tempest and all of them entered it.

Chapter 13: The preparation & the defeat of Bowser

Our heroes came back to the Mushroom World, Toad was outside Mario's Pad warning Mario that there is a war on to defeat Bowser; Mario joins Toad to defeat Bowser. Luigi got on Yoshi as Mario is slowly walking towards Bowser's keep rescuing Princess Peach. In the castle Bowser played Wario Party 5 when suddenly Ludwig Von Koopa (one of the Koopa kids) shouted, "Mario is here, should we defeat him first or his friends?" Bowser was shocked and he thought, "Friends, I didn't know Mario had friends." So Ludwig showed Bowser quickly Mario & Luigi, the DK crew and the humans. In his commanding voice, Bowser bellowed, "Roy, have you got my koopium steel shell?" Roy just said, "Yes, King Dad." Roy and the other Koopa kids put Bowser super sharp shell on. Ludwig (aka Kooky from now) spoke, "Them Super Mario Brothers and them humans will be putty, wahahohahah!" Mario, Luigi and Yoshi have just reached Bowser's Keep and as usual Luigi has to stay behind with Yoshi. Mario had talked to Luigi and Yoshi by saying, "Lets-a go." Before the humans got in Luigi said to Aimeé and Janet that he would be even happier thanks to their intellect.

Mario, the DK crew barring Cranky, the humans and Fox entered Bowser's Keep with only a flashlight to guide them. Mario defeated plenty of Goombas, Koopas and avoided lots of fireballs along the way. DK and his friends got lost in the castle. The crew is now in Bowser's throne with only Peach and King Toadstool (Peach's father and ruler of the Mushroom World) in sight. Suddenly a person under the name Clarence Beeks appeared (3), transformed to Bowser and he laughed, "Bahh ahh ahh ahh ahhh is that your crew, Mario?" Mario was so embarrassed that he only said, "Yes." Bowser went on saying upsetting insults, all the girls start to cry and Mario got so angry that he punched Bowser on the nose. Fox also used his blaster to defeat Bowser. Peach was so happy that she regretted, "Thank you Mario, for saving me." All the girls cheered after Peach gave Mario a kiss. Mario and the crew took a trip to Treasure Trove Cove to relax on the beach.

Final Chapter: Mario gets up

Mario heard Luigi, "It's-a time to get up, Mario." Mario responded by getting up and noticing that Luigi, Toad and Peach were near his bed. Mario wondered, "What happened, I had this strange dream and all you lot was in it." Luigi answered, "While during the Mario Golf match Wario threw his club at you and we had to take you back home to your cosy bed." Mario explained to his friends what happened in his dream that resulted him with a large royal breakfast just what he deserves.

The End

Do the Captain N,
Super Mario World
Super Mariooooooooo,

I told you it is like Super Mario Bros. 2. Maybe Fox McCloud should not be in. But wait there is a small bonus chapter.

Chapter -e: A letter from Mario

Dear readers,
I thought that I needed a vacation from this crazy story and so for me to stop dreaming about it, I got on my old Raccoon suit and flew away. Maybe I might see you again or not in my next adventure. Bye

Mario Mario

(1) A made up British Airways flight.
(2) This is a redone line from the remake of the Planet of the Apes.
